

Clent Parish Council Website 3rd party usage policy (privacy, cookies and terms & conditions)

We want you to enjoy using the Clent Parish Council website and hope you find it useful – but please read the legal statements below which, amongst other things, spells out what you are allowed to do with the information you see on our site.

Cookie Statement on Home Page

“We take your online privacy very seriously, and wish to inform you that this website uses cookies. However, we only use cookies for completely anonymous tracking purposes, and we never pass any information to third parties. To find out more about cookies on this website, please see our privacy policy”.
NB. This will be amended to reflect registration on the website, e.g. for an email newsletter, etc.

Privacy Statement

Your privacy is of great importance to us.

Any personal information you send us via our website is kept securely and we will never divulge your personal information to other organisations, unless to satisfy a specific request you made of us.

This site does not create cookies (text files) on your computer to track your movements.

Any personal information you voluntarily send us may be kept for up to one year to allow us to track the actions your comments may have caused us to take. Any information you send us via this website is not encrypted.

We do not keep a record of which webpages have been visited to monitor overall use of this site but this does not entail collecting any data about you, it simply counts how many users have visited a page over a given time.

NB. This will be amended to reflect registration on the website, e.g. for an email newsletter, etc.
